LIFE, A QUESTION

LIFE? and worth living?

Yes, with each part of us —

Hurt of us, help of us, hope of us, heart of us,

Life is worth living.

Ah! with the whole of us,

Will of us, brain of us, senses and soul of us.

Is life worth living?

Aye, with the best of us,

Heights of us, depths of us, —

LIFE is the test of us!

DEATH

I am the key that parts the gates of Fame;

I am the cloak that covers cowering Shame;

I am the final goal of every race,

I am the storm-tossed spirit's resting place.

The messenger of sure and swift relief,

Welcomed with wailings and reproachful grief;

The friend of those that have no friend but me,

I break all chains, and set all captives free.

I am the cloud that, when Earth's day is done,

An instant veils an unextinguished sun;

I am the brooding hush that follows strife,

The waking from a dream that Man calls — LIFE!

MRS. LOUIS RABINOVITZ

A warm "thank you," Mrs. Rabinovitz
 For the thoughtful things you've done
 Without expecting special words
 Of praise from anyone—
 For making school a happier place
 Than words can ever tell
 For understanding problems
 And for solving them, as well—
 For being patient all those times
 When you were tired, too
 For simply being YOU!

We, The Class of 1969,

MR. ARMAND J. REGALBUTI

We thank you for always dealing with everyone justly. Education isn't play—and it can't be made to look like play. It is hard, hard work. You have made our learning more enjoyable by taking special interest in our extracurricular activities. Now all we can say is Thank-you.

Wish To Appreciate

MR. FRANK GOWDY
A true friend advises justly, assists readily, adventures boldly, takes all patiently, defends courageously, and continues a friend unchangeably. Thank-you, Mr. Gowdy, for being our friend.

REASON AND KNOWLEDGE

Be wise—let Reason, not impulse, be your guide. Yet, be mindful that even if Reason be at your side, she is helpless without the aid of Knowledge.

Reason and Learning are like body and soul. Without the body, the soul is nothing but empty wind. Without the soul, the body is a senseless frame.

Know your own true worth, and you shall not perish. Reason is your light and your beacon of truth. Reason is the source of Life. God has given you Knowledge, so that by its light you may not only worship him, but also see yourself in your weakness and strength.

Blessed are they on whom God has conferred the gift of Reason and Knowledge.

Farewell

"Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noon tide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more,

we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower in the sky."
